

Annual slavery and human trafficking statement - Heartstone Group Limited

Introduction:

This statement is made on behalf of Heartstone Group Limited in accordance with the Modern Slavery Act 2015. The Act requires businesses to disclose the steps taken to prevent slavery and human trafficking in their operations and supply chains.

Our Business:

Heartstone Group Limited provides diagnostic imaging services to patients in the UK. We are committed to ensuring that our business operates ethically and responsibly, and that we have robust measures in place to prevent slavery and human trafficking.

Our Policies:

We have a zero-tolerance approach to slavery and human trafficking, and we are committed to ensuring that all of our employees, contractors, and suppliers comply with our policies and procedures. Our policies include:

Our Code of Conduct, which outlines our commitment to ethical and responsible business practices.
Our Supplier Code of Conduct, which sets out our expectations of suppliers with respect to slavery and human trafficking.

Our Anti-Slavery and Human Trafficking Policy, which outlines our approach to preventing slavery and human trafficking in our operations and supply chains.

Our Due Diligence:

We undertake due diligence on all new suppliers to ensure that they meet our ethical standards, and we regularly review our existing suppliers to ensure ongoing compliance. We also train our employees and contractors on identifying and preventing slavery and human trafficking.

Our Supply Chain:

We recognise that our supply chain is complex, and we take steps to ensure that all suppliers in our chain adhere to our ethical standards. We work with suppliers to identify and address any areas of concern, and we are committed to working towards a supply chain that is free from slavery and human trafficking.

Our Commitment:

We are committed to preventing slavery and human trafficking in our operations and supply chains, and we will continue to review and improve our policies and procedures to ensure ongoing compliance with the Modern Slavery Act 2015.

Signed,

Bennum Guma, Director
